

IRCS Youth Organization

Youth Organization of the Iranian Red Crescent Society (IRCS) as an oldest active association of the country in Youth Affairs was established in November 5, 1947. For the time being; as per item 7, article 3 of the IRCS statutes (adopted by the Parliament of Islamic Republic of Iran), the organization as one of the most impressive associations of youth is committed to attain following two (2) objectives:

1) Developing participation of the youth in making decisions and activities pertaining to them

2) Training the youth for preparing them in achieving relief and charity services In line with the implementation of above objectives and by virtue of four (4) main strategies of recruiting, preparedness, organizing, applying and maintaining, this organization is planning to implement and accomplish the aforesaid objectives. As per recruiting strategy, the organization recruits those interested young members who enthusiastically and voluntarily cooperate with the organization.

As per preparedness strategy, the organization is training young members in three plans of centralized trainings, decentralized trainings, and training plans through training of trainers (TOT). Furthermore, in this respect, the organization back up training issue by provision and drawing up brochure, booklets, and training CDs and distribute the same throughout the country.